Hurley's Sarsaparilla commands the largest sale, and is the best preparation before the public. When procuring, take care and take no other.

THEATRE.—Miss Haron had only a fair audience to witness her second representation of Camille. We did not witness more than part of the first and second acts. We saw quite enough Monday night. The play itself, as translated by her, is anything else than what we please a Louisville audience; it is not fit for representation before any but a Parisian audience. And here we may as well correct an error the printers made in our notice yesterday morning. In comparing her translation with that made by Miss Lee, the type-setter as it may be said, the version had in it "features" relative to a Louisville audience.

The remark was intended for the play as represented by Miss Haron.

We saw Camille in part again last night, with a different translation, "Anthony and Cleopatra," in which Mrs. Haron and Wood Boston play the principal parts. We trust Camille will not be presented again this week.

MOZART HALL.—Dr. Beale's PANDORA OF KANSAS ARCTIC VOYAGES.—Arguing from the crowded state of auditorium, night after night, this exhibition has a decided influence upon the public. A fair scene effect than is produced in this work have never seen. We saw the scene of genius breaking through every part of the effect of genius struggling down through frozen air, is novel and eminently beautiful. There are many scenes, which, for gorgeous splendor, we have never seen equalled in this country, and are greeted nightly with loud bursts of applause. Mr. Geo. Hodge, the artist, merits the highest praise for his successful effort in producing this vast and interesting work. It will remain an imperishable monument to his memory in the recollection of thousands in this city, who have been enchanted and interested by his marvellous art. The exhibition is now on, at three o'clock, should not be forgotten.

CORP D'ART.—Quite out of keeping with the usual urbanity of the French character, Mr. Bravilley arranged Angeline Chiquette before the city court yesterday morning, for expressing indignation over her life, and for actually assaulting her and throwing water upon her person. Mr. Bravilley appeared in court, and looking like a very angry little Frenchman. Our reporter, as it is our duty with faithful facts, having neglected his French since his last column, could not understand the charges and answers fully, and the details must be excused. The court said something about the appearance of the parties again on Monday, which, from the peculiar thrust of the defendant's shoulders, must have been understood by the delinquent, Augustin.

TOURISTS.—We were attracted yesterday by the facility with which a little bright-eyed girl of some twelve years of age, rendered her English into very satisfactory French. The little girl was sitting in the capacity of interpreter in the city court, in a case wherein the parties were Frenchmen; they could neither understand the lawyers, the English, nor each other, and came to Judge Johnson to have an understanding. The faithful Englishman was amazed when he went to Paris and found the little children taking French; if he could have been transported to Louisville, where the children master both languages, and translate the same, how glad would he have been to have the little girl in the city court.

IMPATIENT JUDGE.—Impatient and dishonest people are ready to impute partiality to the judicial officer. From the peculiar character of the litigants in our public court, the presiding officer of each charge. From an utter inability to procure all the testimony in the case, and owing to the haste which is inevitable in the formation of an opinion in many instances, the grievances of litigants may not always be understood, and justice may not be done half done. It is worse than unbecoming, however, to have an officer responsible for unfortunate decisions in this state of cases. Thinking men understand Judge Johnson's position, and have never questioned his capacity, or suspected his impartiality.

IN PRISON.—A JURY EXCUSE DISAPPOINTMENT.—Another attempt was made by Judge Johnson yesterday (the third during the fortnight) to obtain the services of a Grand Jury. When our reporter left his patriotic duties and responded to the call. They looked as though they were willing to do the State some service—very much like martyrs. In the meantime the business of the court is suffering.

We would call the marshal's attention to the large assemblage at the Synagogue next Saturday, and would suggest that Jury might be made up there without much trouble (play on the word synagogue).

PARLOR HONOR.—A few select friends of Miss Lee, from one of Louisville's most accomplished and fascinating belles, and daughter of the distinguished author and professor, gave her a party at the Grand Hotel last night. This honor was mainly in consideration of the fact that Miss Lee is about to exchange the literary and fashionable circles of the West for new connections East. The preparations were upon the liberal scale characteristic of that popular hotel; and the occasion was one of high social enjoyment, mingled with regrets that Louisville society was about to lose one who has long been a circle in style and letters.

COURT HOUSE NO. 3.—It is proposed to make an expenditure of money from the treasury, for the purpose of making certain needed improvements to the old court-house. The impracticability of such a step will be apparent to the reflecting mind. A man thought to be necessary to make the needed repairs to the old court-house, in connection with the materials which might be obtained from that building, if torn down, would build an edifice which would be at once substantial and useful and ornamental to the city and country. Our city fathers and country cousins will do well to think of this.

ENTERTAINING HIBERNIAN.—A "spig of shills" (from the provincial towns of Ohio, I understand) had been in the river at this place. Louisville to obtain work. Falling in the way to other people, he heard of the work-house, which he thought must be an opening, and he was before Judge Johnson yesterday as a candidate for admission. The court recommended him to the superior talent of the canal extension, much to Patrick's satisfaction.

WENT THEIR OWN WAY.—A chap nicknamed Keck, and another fellow, who had, as the horticulturalists say, "interfered for a name," took advantage of the liberty allowed them by the Marshal on an extended tour of the City Court, and went there yesterday morning, in order that they had undergone an examination. They did the thing out of contempt to Judge Johnson, we presume; they were confident of their innocence of any charge whatever, and did not wish to subject the Judge to the troublesome formality of a tedious investigation.

INTERESTING FROM LARUS COUNTRY.—Every Democrat, who feels an interest in the property of his party, should read the letter of our correspondent "Ketchikan," on our first page. It graphically describes some striking scenes in that locality.

The complaint to that sterling Democrat and old citizen, John Young Brown, Esq., was very deservingly and gracefully paid. Nice cheers for the indefatigable Democracy of Larus!

We are indebted to our friend Patrick, mail agent on the Frankfort Railroad, for a copy of yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer.

Wm. H. Howard is in bad health, and contemplates making a trip to Europe. He is perhaps going with the black velvet.

P. H. White, Esq., of Arkansas, known to the readers of the New York Spirit of the Times as "Old Fidelity," is dead.

The Lowest.—The Ohio river at Cincinnati is lower by a foot than it has been before within a period of twenty years.

Thanks to the ever-attentive agents of Adams & Co. Express Company for files of St. Louis and Cincinnati papers, delivered in advance of the mail.

To win the mail the poet tries, And sometimes writes to Julie's eyes. She likes a verse-but cruel white, She still expresses a verse to him.

RETURNED.—Captain John Zulauf, ex-President of the Indianapolis and Jeffersonville Railroad Company, has returned from a European tour. He looks much improved.

QUIETLY MARRIED.—The New York Mirror says—"Dr. Carnahan, the eminent surgeon of this city, was quietly married yesterday to Miss Murray, daughter of Major Morris, U. S. A."

Miss Napoleon, like most all royal ladies, is troubled with mental alienation. His special license is called alumnaria, a softening of the spinal marrow, which will certainly shorten his life.

FOR THE NASHVILLE ROAD.—We chronicle the arrival of two new locomotives yesterday, by river, the "Louisville" and the "Gov. Helm," for immediate use on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

ANOTHER TRAVELER.—We are informed that it is in contemplation to establish a German theater in this city during the present fall. Washington Hall is being refitted, in the most elaborate manner, with that view.

Mrs. E. H. Mason, the widow of Prof. Mason, who occupied a chair in the Cincinnati Medical College, was announced to lecture last evening in New Albany on the subject of the evolution and proper education of women.

A DRENDEL AFFAIR.—The publishers of Mrs. Stowe's new Abolition novel, "Dred," expected to sell 25,000 copies at the recent Trade Sales. They sold only 10,000 copies, all sold at a loss. The novel business has been entirely collapsed, and "Dred" is a dead failure.

N. Y. Day Book.
We regret to have to announce that, owing to the sudden indisposition of Thomas H. Holt, Esq., he was unable to reach Louisville last evening, and consequently disappointed a large number of persons who were eager to hear him speak. We hope that at his first convenience he will gratify his numerous friends in Louisville.

STEAM ON THE RED SEA.—The Viceroy of Egypt has determined to establish steam communication between the Red Sea and the Gulf of Aden, and has chartered a steam navigation company, with a capital of ten millions, of which the government will furnish three millions. The enterprise will be under the direction of Mustafa Pasha, the nephew of the Viceroy.

A WEDDING.—A wedding took place at the court-house on day last week, in which the bride and groom were both children of the same parents. They were both children of the same parents. They were both children of the same parents.

DRUG STORE FOR SALE.
In consequence of other pressing business, I will sell the stock of drugs and fixtures at City Drug Store on Main Street, between Third and Fourth, on a cash basis. This is a good chance for any one wishing to engage in the business. By applying on a good bargain can be had. Apply to the owner on the premises.

DISSENTING HIBERNIAN in the United States. Another attempt was made by Judge Johnson yesterday (the third during the fortnight) to obtain the services of a Grand Jury. When our reporter left his patriotic duties and responded to the call. They looked as though they were willing to do the State some service—very much like martyrs. In the meantime the business of the court is suffering.

New Music.—We are indebted to our young friend Will Cole, title-page engraver, for a copy of the Adieu Polka, composed by Miss Lee. The music is quite beautiful, and will prove a good study for the scholar. In this piece Mr. Cole gives another evidence of his excellent with the guitar; young as he is, he has earned a reputation second to none in the country.

WETWARD.—Two prominent citizens of Louisville yesterday purchased lots in Kansas City, K. T. Kents, who have ideas of emigrating to Kansas have their eyes upon the locality in which that city is located. Messrs. Clements and Connelley is the headquarters in this city for the purchase of lots.

SELLING DRUGS WITHOUT LICENSE.—A well known druggist of Portland was fined $5.00 in the City Court yesterday for doing business without license.
